

The Belmont Hotel

★★★★

In your room you'll find fresh flowers on arrival as well as a personal greeting from the manager, to make you feel especially at home. And if you're staying with us for a special occasion, we can arrange for a bottle of wine or champagne to be ready and waiting for you. All you have to do is ask.

BRINGING YOU EVERY COMFORT...

Every room in the hotel is easily accessible via our large passenger lift and benefits from an en-suite bathroom, television, radio, direct dial telephone, and tea and coffee making facilities. Most have magnificent sea views, while the majority of Deluxe rooms have a balcony and also benefit from complimentary toiletries, fresh fruit, bathrobes and umbrella. Of course, for private dining, a late night snack or a leisurely breakfast on your balcony overlooking the sea, room service is always available.

"Relaxing in our beautiful room with all the comforts of home was the perfect start and end to every day"

Dining at the Belmont Hotel is always a special occasion and we like to keep it that way by requesting that gentlemen wear a jacket and tie in the lounges and dining rooms during evening dinner. It's a touch of formality that makes for a refined atmosphere and one that complements the quality of the cuisine. There's regular entertainment from our resident pianist, and service is formal yet always friendly.

AN EXPERIENCE TO SAVOUR...

Our team of talented chefs are famous for creating a mix of traditional and contemporary dining that is cooked to perfection using the freshest locally sourced ingredients wherever possible. And of course our sommelier will be pleased to recommend a fine wine from our extensive wine list or an aperitif from our liqueur trolley so you can enjoy a taste of fine dining – in style.

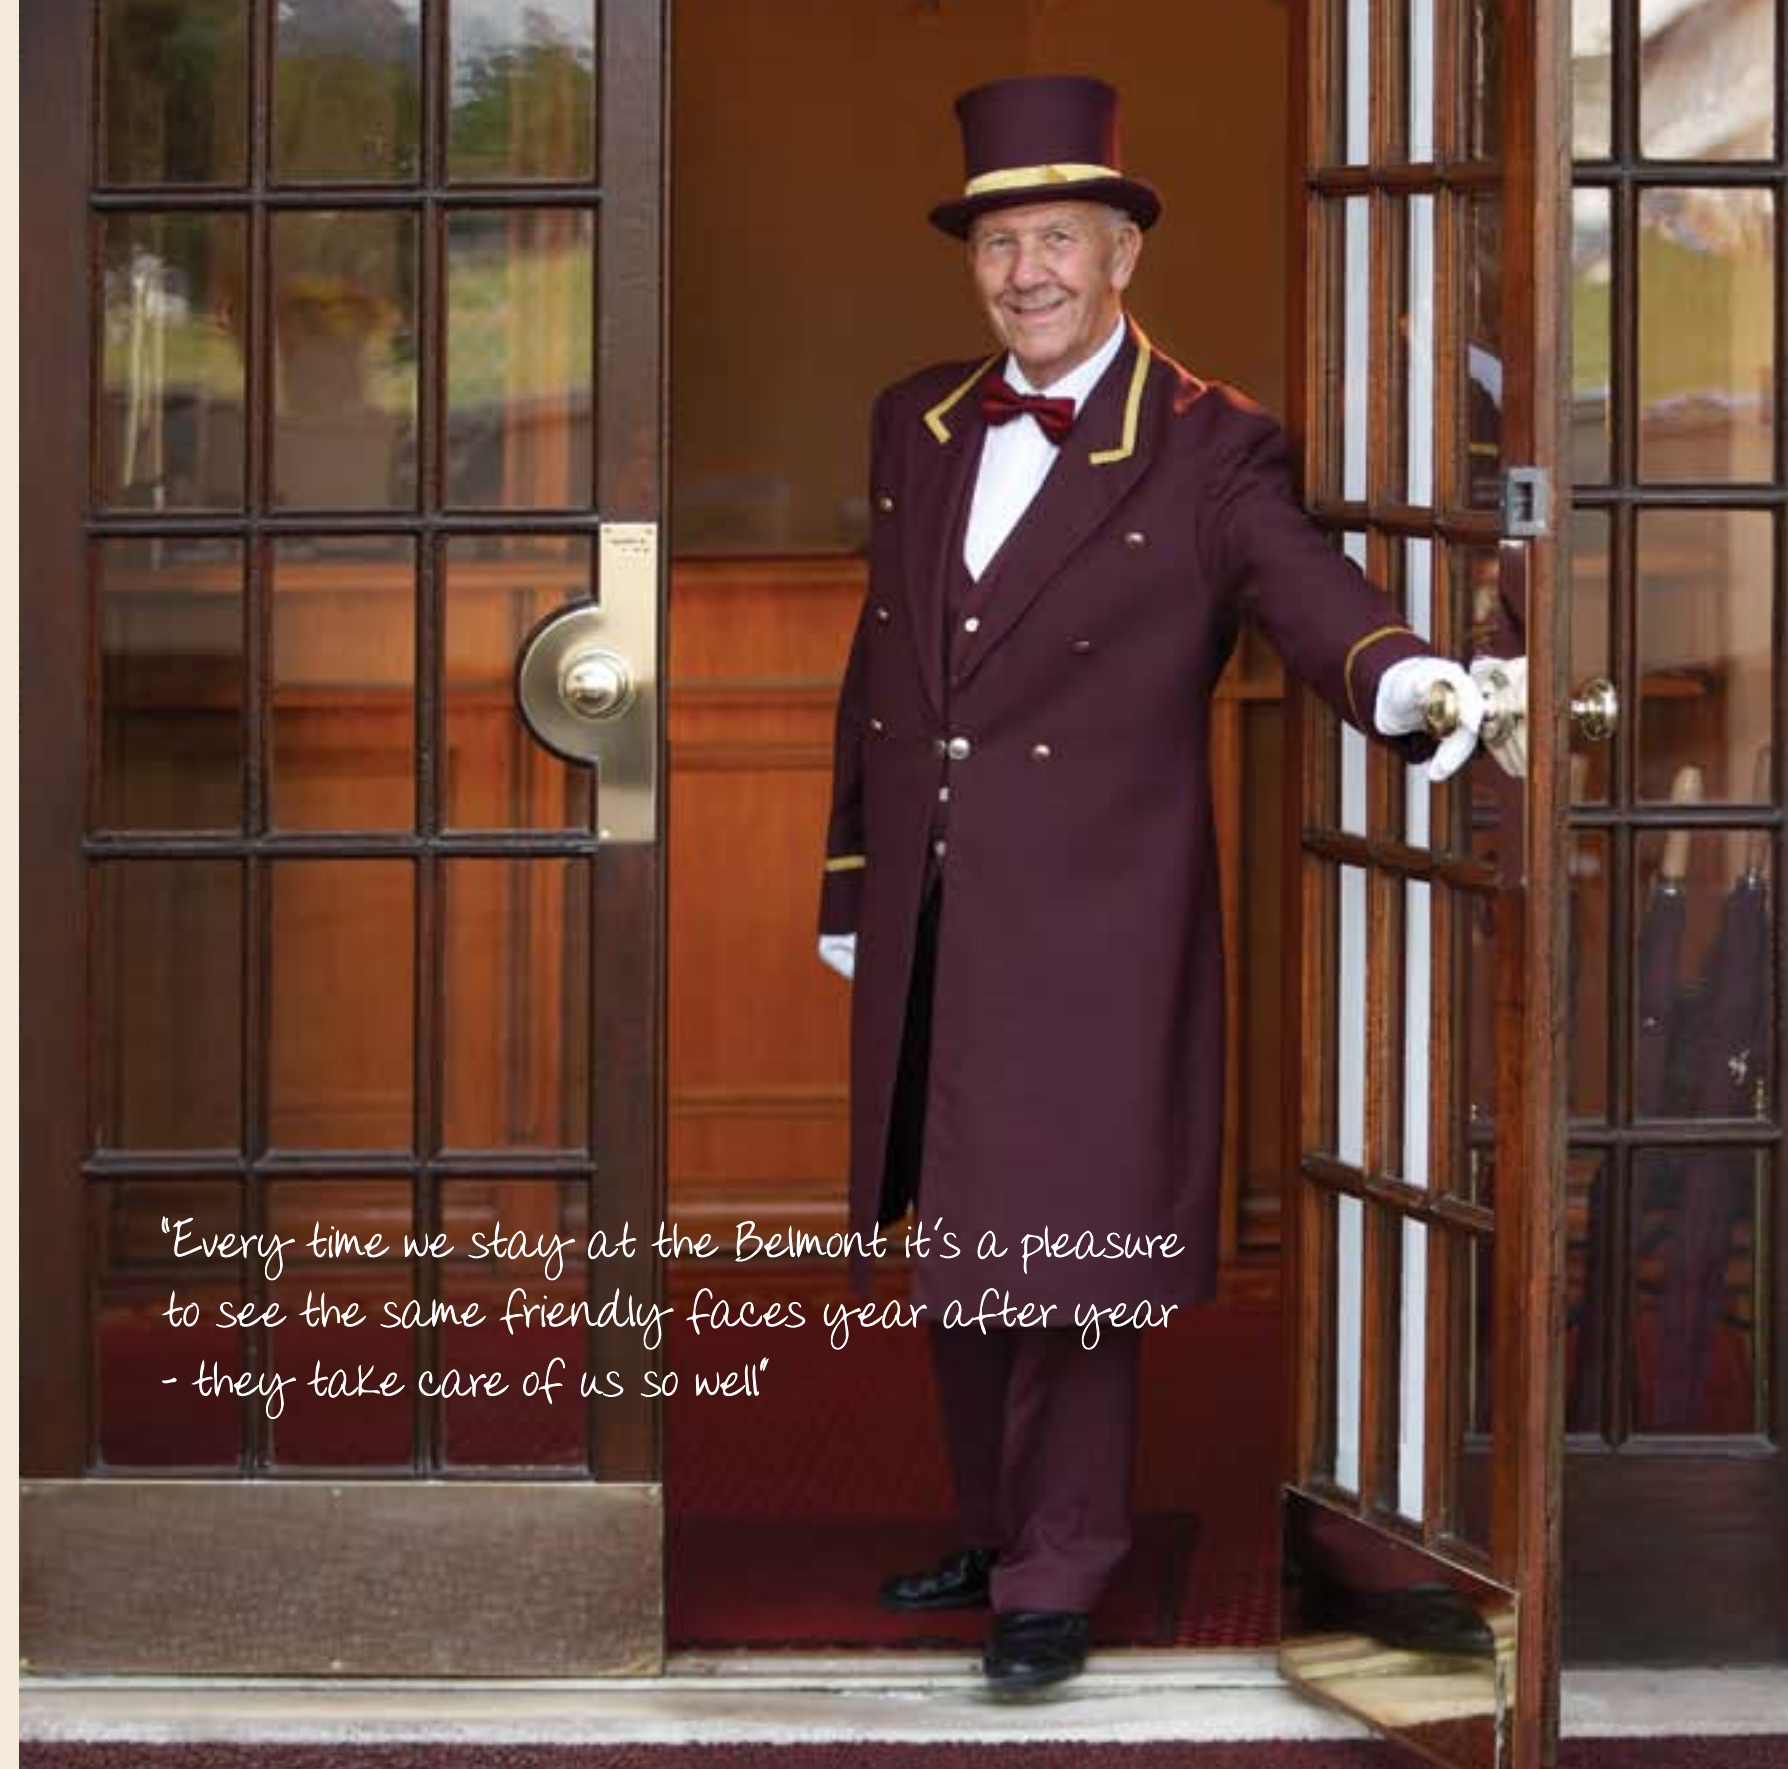

"It's always worth making the effort to dress for dinner and it makes such a lovely atmosphere"

From the moment you arrive at the Belmont Hotel you'll be greeted with a friendly smile and a warm welcome, because we believe that service with a personal touch and attention to detail will make all the difference to your stay.

BECAUSE THE LITTLE THINGS MATTER...

This commitment continues throughout our public areas, where you can relax and enjoy the views from the lounge or cocktail bar while we take care of everything. Big enough to find a quiet corner yet small enough to be sociable, the lounges are luxurious and homely with light refreshments available throughout the day – served with a smile, of course!

"Every time we stay at the Belmont it's a pleasure to see the same friendly faces year after year - they take care of us so well"

The Belmont Hotel's location is really special. Just yards from the hotel entrance is the sea and Sidmouth's lovely beach and esplanade. It's just a short level walk to the town centre where independent shops and quirky boutiques, cosy coffee shops and fine restaurants make shopping here feel like a trip back in time, with an old world atmosphere that's hard to find elsewhere.

JUST A STROLL AWAY...

Sidmouth is surrounded by beautiful countryside too. It's a great stretch of coast for walking. As part of the Jurassic Coast, the cliffs at Sidmouth are famous for their internationally important geological features and abundance of fossils. In the summer you can take guided walks in the company of a local expert from Sidmouth Museum to take a closer look at this World Heritage Site.

Away from Sidmouth there are plenty of opportunities for sightseeing: Exeter is just a few miles away while, to the east, lovely Lyme Regis, with its world famous Cobb sea wall, offers a great opportunity for a historical day out.

Closer to home you'll find plenty to keep you occupied. Weekly dinner dances - and our summer entertainment programme - are always popular. As well as the hotel's putting green, you are entitled to use the fantastic facilities at the adjacent Victoria Hotel. These include outdoor and indoor heated pools, tennis court, sauna*, solarium* and spa bath*, as well as a mini gym, an 18 hole putting green and snooker.

*These facilities are available at a nominal charge.

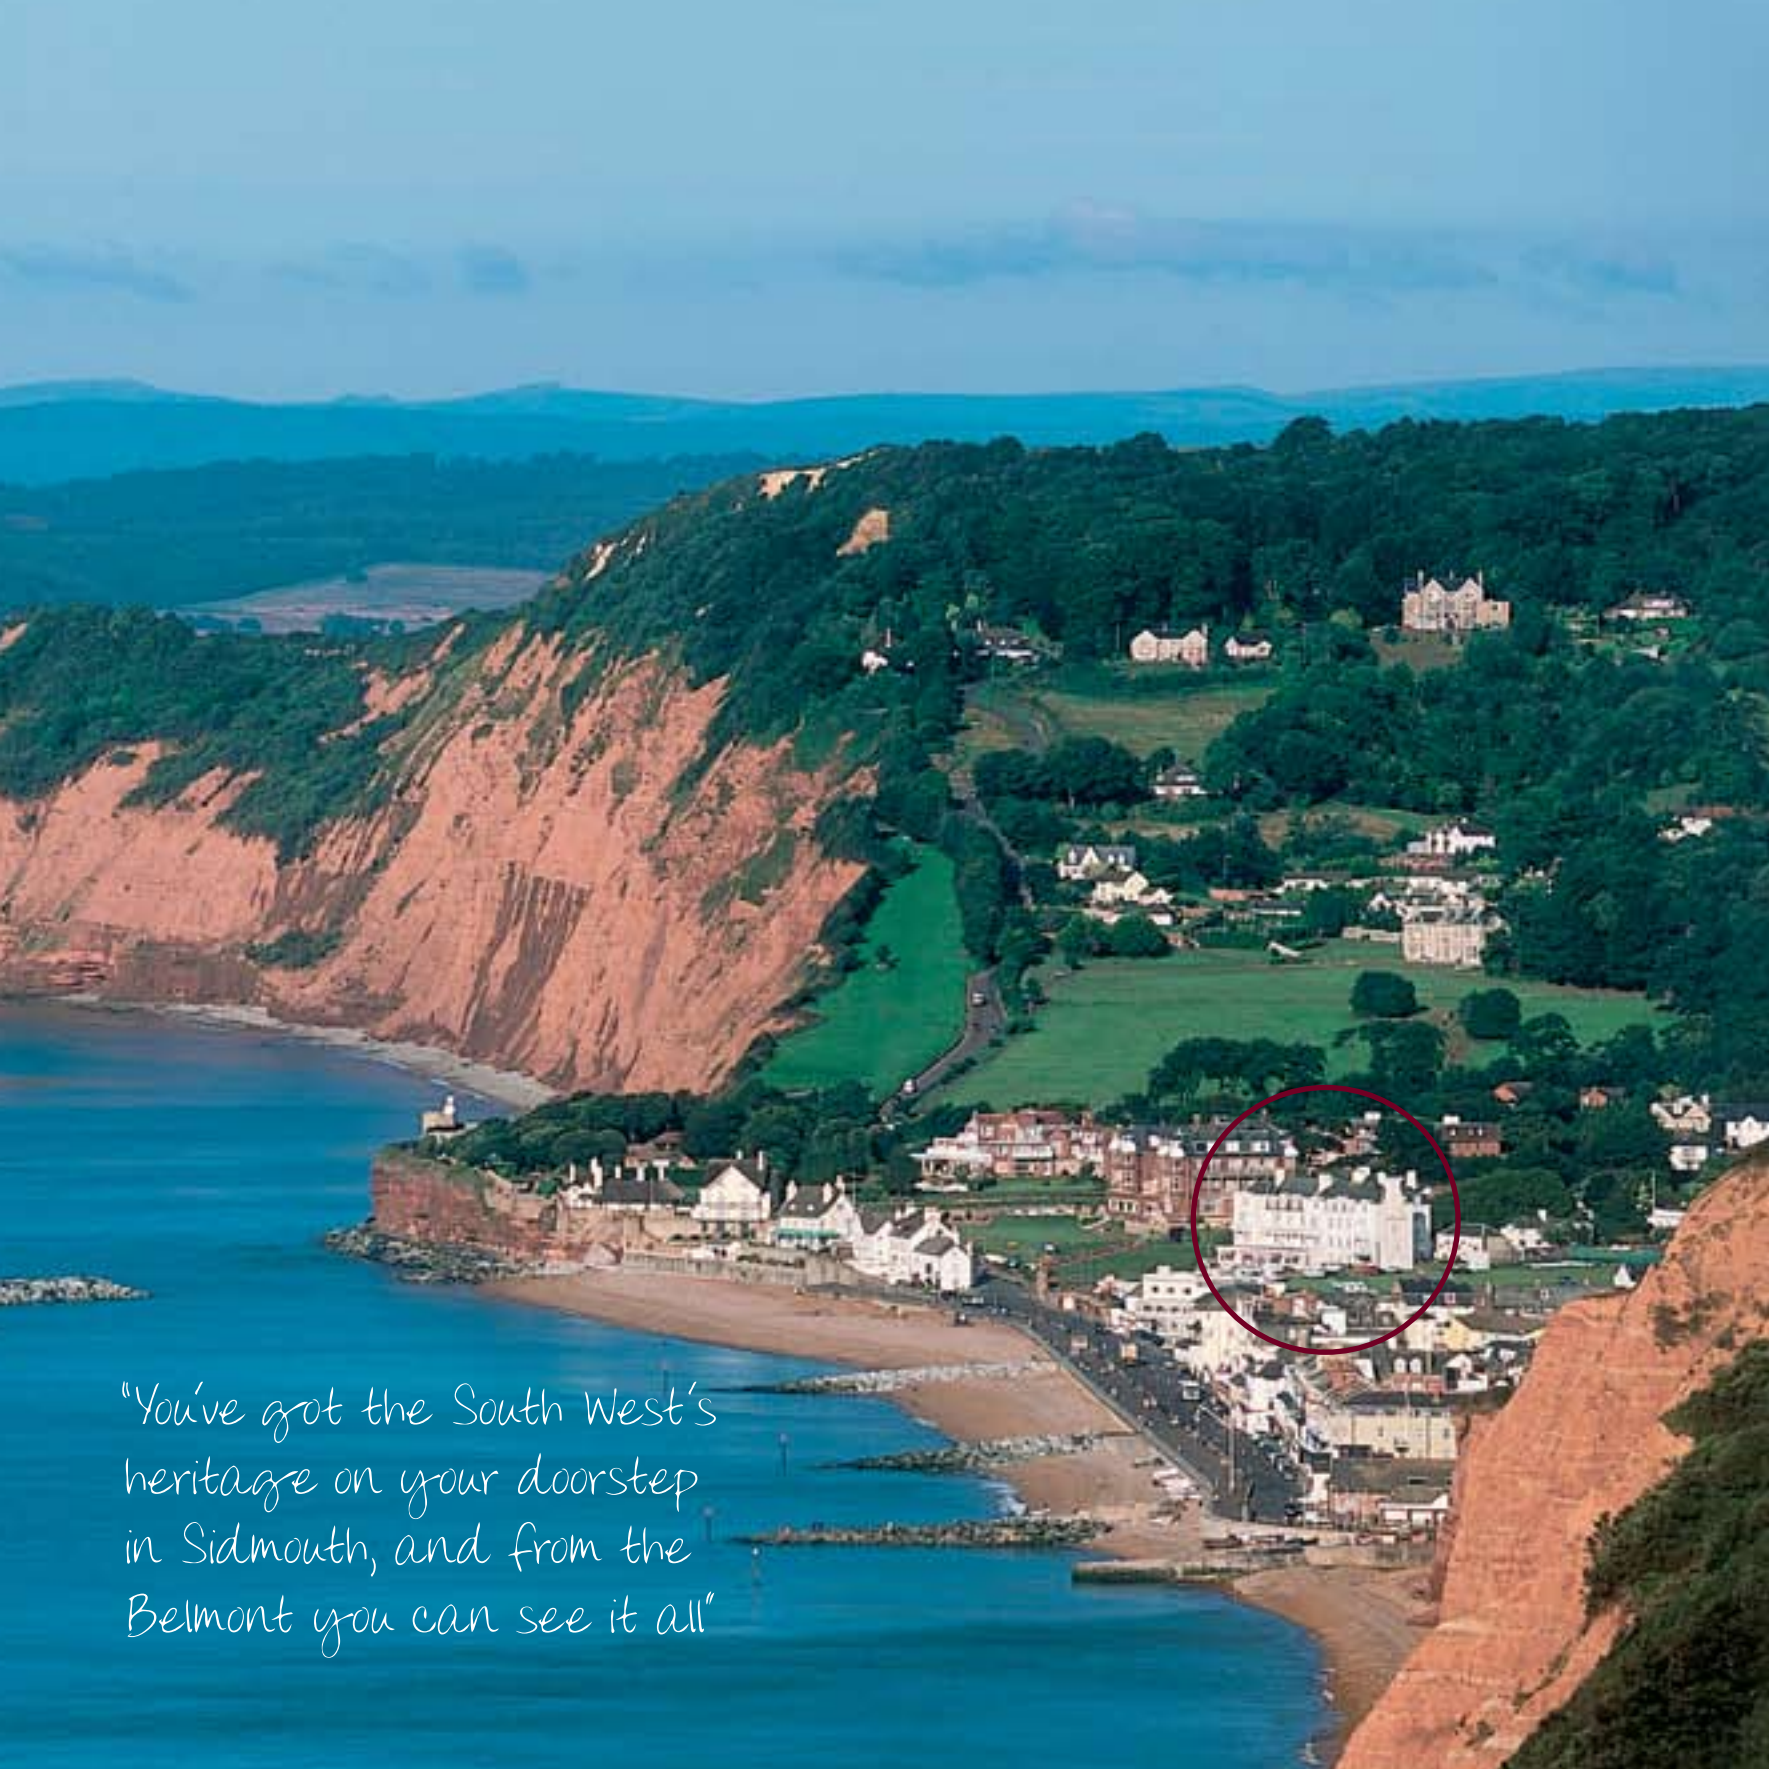

With a graceful air of sophistication and a timeless charm, the Belmont Hotel stands proudly at the western end of Sidmouth's striking esplanade. It's just a short stroll from Sidmouth's bustling town centre, yet in the manicured gardens you could be a world away as you enjoy a cream tea or a glass of fine wine.

THE PERFECT LOCATION...

You're never far from the sea at the Belmont Hotel. On a summer's day there's nothing like taking your time over a Pimms or a light lunch on the terrace as you savour the wonderful views. The end of the day is a special time on the terrace too; balmy evenings and perfect sunsets make it a unique setting for a sundowner to remember.

"A stroll along the seafront, a few hours watching the cricket, a cream tea on the lawn. What more could you ask for?"

"You've got the South West's heritage on your doorstep in Sidmouth, and from the Belmont you can see it all"
